

Newsletter

Hello!

We are working on identifying and using words that name actions, directions, positions, sequences, and locations. For this assignment, the students will use either iMovie, Toontastic, or Voicethread to create something that shows what different words mean. For example, the student could use the word jump and either record a video of them jumping or create a cartoon showing this action. This assignment will be due February 2nd.

Thank you